THE DAILY AVALANCHE.

The White Man's Platform.

I hold that this Government was made on the white basis, by white men, for the benefit of white men and their posterity forever, and should be administered by white men, and none others. I do not believe that the Almighty made the negro capable of self government.—Stephen A. Douglas.

Hear President LINCOLN in reply:

I AM NOT, NOR EVER HAVE BEEN, IN FAVOR OF MAKING VOTERS OR JURORS OF NEGROES, nor of qualifying them to hold office, nor intermarrying them with white people, and I will say, in addition to this, that there is a PHYSICAL DIFFERENCE between the white and black race, which, I believe, will forever forbid the two races living together on terms of social and political equality—and, inasmuch as they cannot so live, while they do remain together, there must be a position of superior and inferior, and I, as much as any other man, am in favor of having the SUPERIOR POSITION ASSIGNED TO THE WHITE RACE.

It is now stated that Major S. H. Hillyer's death was accidental instead of suicidal.

The great canal at Vicksburg is effectually closed, but another cut off threatens to leave Vicksburg high and dry out in the interior.

The illicit distillers are betaking themselves now to the piney woods. One has just been "gobbled" at Arcola, on the Jackson railroad.

The revenue collectors in Middle Tennessee are putting the screws to the illicit distillers.

The Knoxville and Charleston railroad will soon be completed to Maryville, a distance of sixteen miles.

A suit for $27,000 damages has been entered against the Jackson railroad for alleged failure of the agent at Osyka to transport for shipment cotton according to an agreement.

An Edinburgh newspaper contains the following singular "personal" advertisement: "Young lady wanted, about seventeen or eighteen, to go to a ball on the 14th."

A number of gentlemen from the vicinity of Leadville, East Tennessee, have recently shipped a considerable lot of corn to Liverpool direct, via Norfolk, Virginia.

The Meridian Mercury says a few castor beans planted in gardens will keep moles away, and if a more general planting will work out the carpet-baggers, he is in favor of trying it.

A gang of desperadoes entered the town of Cleveland, Tennessee, on Friday night of last week, broke open the jail and released all the prisoners. They tied the jailor and took him out about three miles from town.

Hon. Marshall A. Graves, Representative from Jackson county in the present Legislature, died on Friday night, the 27th ultimo, of consumption, under which disease he had been gradually sinking for some time past.

Judge Pope, of the twelfth circuit of Alabama, was arrested at Jacksonville by the military authorities and confined for failure or refusal to execute the jury orders. Judge Pope was an original and all the time a Union man.

The Ohio House of Representatives by a vote of 53 to 47, passed a bill repealing penalties imposed by existing laws upon judges of elections who refuse to receive "visible admixture" votes. Ohio, it is proper to state, never joined the Southern Confederacy.

The remains of a man supposed to be Woodson Hodge, of Jefferson county, Tennessee, were found near Duvall's ford, in Sullivan county, on Saturday, the 21st ultimo. Hodge was missed in November last, and it is supposed that he was foully dealt with.

The Cretan Commission at Athens has addressed an appeal for help to all the sovereigns of Europe and to the President of the United States. The Holy Father was the first to respond by forwarding 3,000f. The King of Greece contributed 15,000f.

The British Parliament, by a vote of 181 to 25, has swept away the system of strangling men in public, and enacted that legal homicides shall henceforth be committed in private. The hideous scenes at Newgate are not to be repeated.

Brownlow recommends the railroads in Tennessee to pass those who are to attend the General Conference or the National Convention, both of which meet in Chicago in May, at half fare. Who is to board these loyalists when they get there? That's the question.

The editor of the Morristown, East Tennessee, Gazette, duns his patrons as follows: "A man might as well attempt to quench the phosphorescent emanations from the tail end of a lightning bug with a squirt gun, as to try to run a newspaper without money."

One of the audience assembled to hear the arguments before an important Committee of the Assembly at Albany, last week, said that the members of the Committee looked as though they had a bias in their minds. "It all depends," answered another, "whether you spell it bias or byus."

The new Baden Cabinet includes a Jew—Herr Elstetter—as Minister of Finance. This is the first time that such an office has been conferred in Germany upon one of the ancient faith. Strange enough, the innovation occurs in the south of Germany, where the Jews, as a rule, are far from holding the eminent social position they do in the North.

The "senior editor" of the Knoxville Whig, who is also one of the acting Governors of Tennessee, is out in four more editorials. In the first he denounces returned rebels, particularly the preachers; in the next he gives the New York Times the lie four times for telling the truth on him; in the third he slobbers on General Thomas, another of our Governors; and in the last he praises up Brownlow's self.

According to recent statistics the total number of Jews in the world is 7,000,000, one-half of whom live in Europe. In Russia the Jewish population is 1,220,000; in Austria 853,000; in Prussia 284,000; and in Germany 192,000. At Frankfort-on-the-Main every sixteenth inhabitant is a Jew, and in the whole of Prussia every seventy-third. There are fewer Jews in Saxony than in any other part of Germany. In Sweden and Norway the proportion of Jews to the rest of the inhabitants is about one to six thousand. In France, England and Belgium, where the Jews are under no disabilities, they are less numerous than in countries where they have not yet been placed on an equality with the believers in other creeds.

Distinguished Writers.

"Mack" is Andrew Johnson, of Washington City.

"Yuba Dam" is an old maid who keeps a cat in Jeffersonville, Indiana, and kills the kittens with great regularity. She also writes for the Louisville Courier.

"Faxy" is the proprietor of the Courier.

The "Fat Contributor" is a lager beer Dutchman in Covington, Kentucky. He has a fancy for writing to the Cincinnati Times, and playing Toodles for the benefit of his Cathrina. He is a jolly fellow, but too fat to ever venture across the river. His real name is H. Hoffheimer and he likes good beer.

"Jennie June" is a sweet, rosy miss of New York, who supports an aged grandmother, two old aunts, and six big brothers by writing fashion letters. She would marry, but is afraid she could not support a husband in addition to her present charges.

"J. Augustine Signiago" is Miss. Belle St. Clair, of Augusta, Georgia.

"Sut Lovengood" is Hatcher, of the Louisville Journal.

"Bill Arp" is a quaint old miller in North Georgia. His name, properly, is William Harp. We know this to be so, for we have seen the mill.

"Mark Twain" is the name assumed by Miss Lucy Stone when she wants to say manly things.

"Asa Hartz" is General Albert Pike.

"Petroleum V. Nasby" is a colored preacher in Ohio. He is a prominent political leader in his State, like all other preachers there. His name is John Brown, junior.

LAGRANGE LETTER.

Call for a Tanner with Small Capital to go to LaGrange.

Importance of Southern Manufactories.

Escape of the Bogus "Ku-Klux" who Would Play Highwayman.

Anticipated Revolution in Telegraphy.

Special Correspondence Memphis Avalanche.]

LAGRANGE, TENN., March 31.

Early last week, Hill, the murderer of Wm. A. Sutherland, (both of this place, where the murder was committed; the latter being town constable at the time,) was convicted at Somerville and sentenced to fifteen years confinement at hard labor in the penitentiary. Before the end of the week however, he managed to effect his escape by filing and cutting through the iron grates of his cell, and is now at large. Many will naturally say that this does not make much difference, for the reason that if he had reached the penitentiary Governor Brownlow has all along shown so great a partiality for villains of his stripe, he would have speedily pardoned him and sent him forth with a roving commission to rob and kill all ex-rebels who dare to say anything derogatory to the immaculate character of the Parson-Governor and his black and tan retainers and followers.

I see that you publish an earnest call for "skilled and unskilled Conservative labor" from Helena, Arkansas. Please do us of LaGrange, Tennessee, the favor to state that a TANNER, with a capital of $2,000 or $2,500, will find the best opening for his business here that is to be met with at this time any where within one hundred miles of Memphis. One of our citizens owns the tan-yard site, (the buildings of which were destroyed during the war, leaving the vats, however, intact, and still in good working order,) but he lacks the necessary capital to put it in operation, and therefore desires a partner. It is believed that a gentleman of some experience in the business, with the capital above named, could, by investing here, make a fortune in a few years. Our people are everywhere resolving to patronize home manufactures and have productions of all kinds. I heard an intelligent, experienced gentleman of this place remark yesterday that he was well assured that ten thousand dollars might be annually saved to the community by the establishment of a single tan yard here, with shops for the manufacture of shoes, harness, etc., attached. And similar, and in some instances even greater savings, would accrue from the establishment of manufactures of many other kinds of articles of general use, the raw material of which is either produced or grows spontaneously among us. Cotton, wool, flax and hemp, in all their forms; agricultural implements of all kinds; corn, wheat, oats, rye, buckwheat, barley; basketware, the willow for which grows in abundance in every hollow an on every branch and creek; stoneware, the material existing in almost every hillside; brooms, Lucifer matches, ax-helves, white oak staves and casks—white oak being abundant here and nowhere else in the world—while the demand for it is increasing everywhere, wherever wine or spirits are used throughout the world, and perhaps a thousand other articles, which it would take me hours to think of, but which will readily occur to every intelligent Southern man who is acquainted with the incalculable natural wealth and exhaustless resources of "the land we love" and the Radicals hate.

I have just learned from a citizen of Grand Junction, that the young bogus "Ku-Klux" who was so badly wounded in that vicinity last week by Constable Sam. L. Prewitt, whom he was attempting to rob on the highway, got well and strong enough, a night or two since, to mount his fine horse and make good his escape.

I take pleasure in announcing through your columns that G. B. Ford, Esq., of Bolivar, Tennessee, (formerly of Somerville) has filed his caveat, preliminary to applying for a patent that promises to work a great revolution in our present system of telegraphing. It is for what may be called a "ground battery," by which the inventor proposes to obtain all the electricity required for telegraphing purposes from the earth—thus saving the whole enormous expense of chemicals, glass jars, retorts, etc. I have before me now a specimen of telegraphic writing done by the ground battery (I saw the performance myself) which proves conclusively that Mr. Ford's machine will do good work; and, I am informed by two of the best telegraphists in the country, that they have little doubt he will be able soon to perfect it, obtain his patent, and bring about the great revolution contemplated. O. K. K.

The President has accepted the resignation of Captain James P. Brownlow, of the Eighth Cavalry.

NATIONAL TELEGRAPH.

THE NATIONAL

TELEGRAPH COMPANY

A NEW enterprise, to be known as the National Telegraph Company, has been organized with valuable franchises conferred by a recent act of Congress for the purpose of establishing Trunk Lines of Telegraphs on all the principal railroads and mail routes in the United States. The Stock is to be issued upon the same principle as that of the Merchant's Union Express Company, which recently commenced operations. The design is to interest the entire business community in the enterprise. This is done, not so much to dispose of the stock as it is to secure the business of the country which the lines pass.

THE CAPITAL IS TO BE

In 100,000 shares of the par value of

$100 PER SHARE

But the actual amount to be paid in cash is

$35 PER SHARE

and this amount is to be paid as follows: One per cent. of the par at the time of subscribing, and no more until the entire capital has been subscribed, and then on calls to be made by the Board of Directors; Instalments not to exceed five per cent. per month. When thirty-five per cent of the par value of the shares has been paid, certificates of stock will be issued. This will give the Company a paid up

CASH CAPITAL OF $3,500,000

Which will be sufficient to duplicate lines to all or nearly all the paying points reached by the present monopoly.

The present Telegraph Companies throughout the country have been consolidated into one huge monopoly, and are now earning over SIX MILLIONS OF DOLLARS per year, or over one hundred per cent. on the actual cost of their lines their present capital having been watered over ONE THOUSAND per cent.

THE NATIONAL TELEGRAPH COMPANY have a recognition from the United States Government of the importance of their enterprise, with a grant of the most valuable franchises ever conferred upon a telegraph company. No competing line has ever had the right now granted by Congress to this company to construct and operate lines over every RAILROAD and MAIL ROUTE in the United States. The position of this Comp ny differs from that of any company ever before organized. The question of the RIGHT OF WAY IS FOREVER SETTLED.

The Stockholders of this Company cannot be sold out or TRANSFERRED to any other Company. The act of Congress under which this Company has been organized prohibits any transfer of the franchise granted.

CALLS---HOW TO BE MADE

One per cent of the Stock will be required on subscribing, and subsequent calls, not to exceed five per cent. per month, will be made by the Board of Directors, from time to time, as may be necessary, to supply funds to construct and equip the lines; but no calls will be made after the one per cent. is paid, until the entire Capital Stock shall have been subscribed

ACTUAL CAPITAL REQUIRED

The Company confidently believe that thirty-five per cent of the Capital Stock will construct and fully equip

25,000 Miles of Wire

Which will connect all the commercial centers and important places in the United States. This opinion rests upon the most reliable estimates and responsible offers to construct and equip the lines.

THE NATIONAL TELEGRAPH COMPANY is organized under the laws of the state of New York, and franchises conferred by an act of Congress, approved July 24, 1866.

President—GEORGE B. SENTER, of Cleveland, Ohio.

COMPANY'S OFFICE,

Nos. 64 and 66 Broadway, New York

A limited amount of the capital stock of this Company is allotted to this locality, and those having an opportunity, and soliciting, will be placed upon equal terms with its organizators, and will secure like interests in all franchises which have accrued, or may hereafter accrue to the Company from any and all sources.

Stock may now be subscribed in this Company at the Office of THE MERCANTILE AGENCY, R. G. DUN & CO., Room No. 5, Commercial Bank Building, corner Main and Madison streets, Memphis, Tenn.

This is a beautiful paper, that every farmer and every farmer's wife—that every nurseryman and his wife and every stock raiser and his wife, and the sons of these, should read and its advice follow.

From the following papers learn the verdict of the Southern press:

From the Memphis Avalanche.

"We hope no planter in the Southwest will regard his household gods as complete without a copy of the SOUTHERN FARMER. * * * It is a splendid publication in every respect which should be in the hands of all interested in such matters."

From the Gallatin Examiner.

"One of the best agricultural papers in the country, is the SOUTHERN FARMER, published at Memphis by M. W. Phillips & Co., at $2."

From the Memphis Bulletin.

"It is exactly adapted to the wants of the people in this neighborhood and the Southwest."

From the Memphis Appeal.

"It is an excellent paper, and in every respect merits the patronage of our farmers and planters. * * * Two dollars cannot be expended to more advantage than on a year's subscription."

From the Memphis Public Ledger.

"We take much pleasure in recommending THE SOUTHERN FARMER to our planting friends as a journal whose worth to them cannot be estimated in dollars."

From the southern Eagle, Miss.

"We know of no better agricultural journal in the country. Every farmer should subscribe.

From Moore's Rural New Yorker.

Every man should read in his profession. The farmer must read and study his by the best lights or he will lose ground. He should cultivate in his sons a love for agriculture, horticulture and stock raising, and he can do this no more cheapiy or successfully than by taking an agricultural paper.

One well conduc ed Southern paper, located at THE SOUTHERN FARMER is, in the center of the South and West, and only conducted by the South's ablest pens, is worth more to southern farmers than all the papers written at the North and for Northern farmers. Try the FARMER one year.

SATURDAY, : : : APRIL 4, 1868

WE published on Thursday morning what DANIEL WEBSTER and HENRY CLAY said of fanaticism, and we give below the warning of a voice still more potential. We quote the following from WASHINGTON'S Farewell Address:

It is important, likewise, that the habits of thinking in a free country should inspire caution in those intrusted with its administration, to confine themselves within their respective constitutional spheres, avoiding in the exercise of the powers of one department to encroach upon another. The spirit of encroachment tends to consolidate the powers of all the departments in one, and thus to create, whatever the form of government, a real despotism. A just estimate of that love of power, and proneness to abuse it, which predominates in the human heart, is sufficient to satisfy us of the truth of this position. The necessity of reciprocal checks in the exercise of political power, by dividing and distributing it into different depositories, and constituting each the guardian of the public weal against invasions by the others, has been evinced by experiments, ancient and modern, some of them in our country and under our own eyes.

To preserve them must be as necessary as to institute them. If, in the opinion of the people, the distribution or modification of the constitutional powers be in any particular wrong, let it be corrected by an amendment in the way which the Constitution designates. But let there be no change by usurpation; for, though this, in one instance, may be the instrument of good, it is the customary weapon by which free governments are destroyed. The precedent must always greatly overbalance, in permanent evil, any partial or transient benefit which the use can at any time yield.

These warning words should sink deep into the hearts of every patriot in times like the present. WASHINGTON, in the above pointed language, intends to rebuke just such "usurpation" and "despotism"—just such a desire to "consolidate" the Government and to trample upon the Constitution, as is now being exhibited by the Radical Rump Congress. All the checks and balances which the illustrious WASHINGTON invoked his fond country to guard and preserve have been obliterated, and the country is rapidly hastening into the very maelstrom which the Father of his Country has told us would submerge the liberties of the people. Disregarding the eloquent and prophetic admonitions of WASHINGTON, the Radical usurpers have advanced till the continued existence of the Republic is a question of doubt, a question of time. Despotism has done its worst for us. We are scourged with a monstrous oppression, by monstrous tyrants in power. Indeed, the Southern people, wandering sad and helpless, amid the ruins of all their rights and desolate homes, the victims of the cruel and unbridled passions of a mean conqueror, can well afford to scorn and bid defiance to the assassins who are staining their impious hands with the blood of a nation's liberties; but they grieve to see and feel and know that the same hand that lays waste and deflours the laws and Constitution of the Southern States, will soon be felt in the North. We repeat, the South can bid defiance to her tormentors and persecutors. With a noble dignity, in the midst of her misfortunes, she looks down with quiet contempt and calm disdain upon her ill-bred and low-flung enemies who have robbed her of her rights, but she will live to see the poisoned chalice turned to the lips of her oppressors. There exists, among the savage inhabitants of one of the islands of the Pacific, a custom as commendable for its mildness and humanity as for its beautiful illustration of filial devotion. When a warrior waxes too old to hunt or to fight, and totters about with weak legs, imperfect vision and toothless gums—a tax upon his children and an eyesore to the tribe—his eldest son takes the old gentleman on his shoulders, carries him to the top of a high rock, and pitches him into the ocean, where the venerable gentleman finds a resting place in the stomach of a shark. The son having thus disposed of his illustrious progenitor, returns to the village of his tribe, and accepts a complimentary dinner of human flesh from a large circle of admiring friends. On a certain occasion, whilst in obedience to the custom of his tribe, an affectionate son was bearing his dilapidated and venerable father to the fatal cliff, the old gentleman was heard to sob and groan most piteously. "Father," said the son, "why do you weep, are you, an old warrior, afraid?" No, no, my dear and dutiful boy," blubbered the old savage, "I am not afraid to meet my fate like a Fegee chief, but I am weeping at the idea, that after a few short years, you will be also cast from yonder cliff into the ocean, by your son, according to the custom of our people—it is for you I weep, not for myself." The South has passed through the ordeal of adversity. She has been slandered and calumniated by the carpet bag scalawags. An army, like so many barbarians, have swept over her soil, pillaging and burning and devastating the country, and she has therefore nothing to fear from despotism. But our people, kicked and cuffed, maimed and bruised as they are, still weep to know that many of the Northern States will be subjected to the same infamous tyranny. There is no appeasing fanaticism. The taste of blood only whets the appetite of the tiger, and the oppressions of the Jacobins towards the South will soon be visited upon the North. Our Northern friends, like the Fegee chief, will soon be cast from the same cliff from which have been hurled the Southern people, crushing all their liberties. Already Congress has taken possession of the States, and arrogates to dictate what sort of laws each State shall enact. We have nothing to fear, nothing to deplore in the South, since we are despoiled of property, robbed of civil liberty, insulted by plunderers, and dominated over by ignorant, but misguided negroes; but like the Fegee chief, we weep at the idea, that after a few short years our Northern friends will be cast from the same cliff into the ocean of anarchy, against which WASHINGTON raised his warning voice in the above extract and into which Radical fanaticism is rapidly hurrying the country.

DURING the last two years we have been advised to go slow. Men in our midst who have no principles to forfeit, no disgrace to fear, no good opinion to lose, no aim higher than their breeches pocket, and no ambition save that of toadyism towards Radicalism have been whispering into our ears m-o-d-e-r-a-t-i-o-n! We despise the word. There is no compromise between truth and error—and we are not moderate in friendships, moderate in enmities, moderate in advocating liberty, or moderate in opposing despotism. We are gratified, however, to see that the country is getting sick of moderation. The National Intelligencer, one of the wisest and most discreet papers published in the Union, says:

Every man is the guardian of his own honor. The Conservative that does not fight his enemies, but yields to their blows for purposes of imagined peace and harmony in the hope of conciliating them, will in the end be trampled into the very earth. Acting as violent aggressors, the extreme Radicals have gone on from conquering to conquer, until God alone knows where their fury, hate, and revengefulness will land our common country. It is not now, nor ever was, a fit plea for an entire man to succumb in a large way or a small way, for a moment or for a long period, to what his conscience and sense of honor and integrity cannot justify. The paths of politics in all time have been strewn with the dead men's bones of those who fell by the wayside for want of resolution to be "heroes in the strife." They counselled "a little more sleep, a little more slumber, a little more folding of the hands to sleep." They abided in the houses of their enemies. They called them their own households. They invited them from the threshold to that fireside whence proceeded at once the hostile acts that expelled the actual owner from beyond his own doors.

Brave words! Two years ago the Intelligencer administered the AVALANCHE a severe rebuke for its bitterness, for uttering the very sentiments contained in the above extract. We fear all has been lost by temporizing with despotism. If the people of Memphis, two years ago, had joined us in a bitter, unrelenting war against Radicalism, instead of pandering to their supposed power, that "thrift might follow fawning," there would have been no Radical party in Memphis to-day, and the carpet-bag plunderers would now be in the North, masticating pumpkin pies, instead of battening upon the hard earnings of the tax payer. Moderation has built up the Radical party and moderation will perpetuate its power. The right must be defended earnestly and intensely, boldly and manfully. There should be, there can be no moderation when our liberties are usurped by tyrants—when the Constitution is trampled under foot—when the States are robbed of their rights,—thieves and carpet-bag scalawags are plundering the people, and the negro made superior to the white man. There is no time for moderation when our dwellings are on fire, and he who prates about moderation when the torch of the incendiary is about to be applied to the temple of our liberties, is both fool and knave. When there is mutiny among the crew or the vesssel sinking, what would be thought of the pilot who stood upon deck and shouted moderation! moderation? There is no security for the people in the Government. The doors of the Supreme Court have been closed, and the oppressed have no appeal in that quarter. The Constitution is an "obselete idea." State sovereignty is a mockery. What can be predicted for the future of a country thus voluntarily thrust back into barbarism by the decrees of its law-givers? What can we, what dare we hope of the immediate present of a civilized nation thus hurling away the restraints and safeguards of law, and substituting for them the license and despotism of outlawry and anarchy. What shall we say of the fitness of such men for the discharge of the high and sacred trust reposed in them? History may perhaps do justice to their crimes, but nothing can possibly do justice to their monstrous presumption. How little have they learned in the great school of wisdom; how little have they profited by the great lessons of history. When there is no longer any means left to men to avert danger they turn and face it with awful desperation. When there is no longer an avenue of retreat open, then the sword must cleave a path for an imperiled people. Moderation in such an hour is moral cowardice. It is not patriotism. It is generally suggested by timidity, but more frequently by avarice, a fear of sacrificing something for principle. But the above extract from the National Intelligencer, a moderate paper, shows that forbearance is about to cease to be a virtue, and that the worm is at last squirming. Conscious of the value of peace and apprehending the cost of anarchy, the Intelligencer has, in a spirit of patriotism, conceded much for the sake of peace, hoping a returning sense of justice would stay the hand of tyranny, but it sees the terrible alternative of despotism or resistance is forced upon the country. It sees that moderation is a farce when despotism is deaf to everything but the voices of their own passions and interests. Rights, liberties, time-honored institutions, everything that free men value and revere, have been ruthlessly sacrificed. What is there left to them but the memories of a glorious past—unless, indeed, it is the sacred duty of vindicating the liberties which found to be of little weight, however, in the made the past memorable? So long as there is a hope of successfully appealing to reason and the courts of law, we counsel peace and forbearance, but when these fail us we demand OUR RIGHTS AND LIBERTIES AT ALL HAZARDS! The perjured apostates of Constitutional Liberty, that sit in our Legislative Halls, may learn to their cost, that there are evils more dreaded by free-born men than revolutions—among them despotism.

Near Muscatine, last Sabbath, a Mr. Winders had concealed himself in a tree top in order to watch for ducks, when, in drawing up his gun to shoot, the hammer caught in the branches and discharged the gun, the load striking his arm, and entered his side, causing his death. His body was found in the tree top.

The trial of Major Lee, the Superintendent of the Penitentiary of South Carolina, by a military commission, in Columbia, is proceeding. The testimony, so far, is in his favor, and indicates that the accusation against him is only an attempt of the Radicals to secure the office for one of their own number.

The news from Monte Video, Paraguay, is to the effect that General Valencio Flores, the President, had been murdered by some confederate of his son, Fortunato, it is supposed. The latter having pronounced against his father, and having been defeated and banished, Colonel Lorenzo Battle, the Minister of War, had been elected in his place.

Rio Janeiro advices to March 11th are received. The allied forces had taken possession of the capital, and were passing to the rear of Hamati. The allies now have 40,000 men, fourteen iron clads, and twenty wooden vessels in the neighborhood, while the Paraguayans are reported to have only 12,000 men.

A terrible tragedy occurred on Monday of this week at Little Rock. A Mrs. Crow shot a Mrs. Hillburn five times with a pistol, causing almost instant death. The murderess and another woman were put in prison. Attentions shown Mrs. Crow by Mr. Hillburn, the husband of the woman killed led to the dreadful affair.

The Tribune editorially says: "We have assurances from Washington that General Grant finds it is not inconsistent with his duty as a soldier to announce it as his opinion that the only hope for the peace of the country is the success of the pending impeachment trial. He feels that national security demands the removal of the President.

By breaking the chain connected with the hoisting machinery at the Diamond Coal Mines, in Scranton, Pensylvania, on Tuesday morning, a platform containing seventeen men was precipitated to the bottom of a shaft, 185 feet. Eleven were instantly killed, and one has since died, and two more, it is thought, cannot live. They leave eleven widows and twenty-eight orphans.

J. B. McCullough, (Mack of the Cincinnati Commercial,) has been summoned by the counsel for the President to give testimony in the impeachment trial, to show that the President, in his reported conversations with him, declared that his action in the Stanton-Thomas matter was with the view only of obtaining a judicial decision on the constitutionality of the term of office.

A Havana special states that the bishop embarked for Cadiz on Monday, having ordered all the church bells to ring on the occasion of his departure. He also drew on the Banco Espinola for forty thousand dollars, funds belonging to the new country, but Lersundi prevented the payment of the check. The bishop thereupon had it formally protested. Lersundi's chief of staff goes in the same vessel with the bishop, as a bearer of dispatches.

A dispatch from Minister Van Valkenburg, dated Hiago, Japan, March 2, states that the Tycoon has abdicated, and that the Mikado is sending troops toward Jeddo. One American and two Frenchmen were wounded in the attack on foreigners, but the American marines and sailors dispersed the Japanese. The execution of the Japanese officers ordering the attack was to take place on March 2d. The arrival of the Mikado envoy at Hiago restored quiet.

Special telegraphic correspondence of the Louisville Courier.]

WASHINGTON, April 1.

Sumner made himself conspicuous and ridiculous to-day by moving the Chief Justice had no right to give the casting vote yesterday on the question for retiring for deliberation. Even many Senators who uniformly act with Sumner were disgusted with his petty malignity toward the Chief Justice, who, compared to Sumner, is an eagle to a mousing owl. The motion was promptly rejected.

The counsel then resumed swords on the discussion as to the admissability of the declarations of General Thomas, which proposition Stanbery denied could implicate the President, excepting when they were coupled with actions having origin in obeying strictly the order of the President.

Butler responded, but both his manner and matter damaged his case. In truth his constant tendency to pettifoggying may cause him to be succeeded in the management of the case by another of the managers, two of whom have expressed the belief that the effect of his course was damaging.

Mr. Curtis next arose for the first time, and every whisper was hushed into silence. He submitted to the court whether an order given by a superior to an inferior officer and obeyed by the latter, could, by any possibility, be distorted into a conspiracy between the two, as charged in the indictment and repeated by Butler in his argument. If so a conspiracy existed when Johnson ordered Grant to take charge of the War Department. Curtis pronounced untrue the assertion of Butler that the President said he would remove Stanton at all hazards. Curtis spoke with great force.

The evidence was finally admitted, and this is accepted by some as a decision in favor of the conspiracy. If it be proven it will be

The testimony of several witnesses to-day was damaging to the impeachers, especially that of Knovers, whom the managers introduced as the impeachment witness. He proved nothing but that he was a fool and a consummate liar. His evidence was so entirely absurd that the counsel, court, and all roared with laughter.

The crowd also had a laugh on Thad Stevens, who nodded during a portion of Butler's speech. He is evidently suffering from extreme debility.

Among the witnesses for the President, are Generals Sherman, Rousseau and Steadman, Lewis D. Campbell, of Ohio, and Washington Armstrong, of Cleveland.

In a sharp colloquy which occurred between the managers and the President's counsel, to-day, the former were decidedly worsted. Stanbery was very severe on Butler.

The Judges of the Supreme Court agreed to-day to render a decision Monday in the case of Cincinnati against the Ohio and Mississippi Railroad, involving the title to wharf property valued at one-half million. It is believed the case has gone against the city.

WASHINGTON.

WASHINGTON, April 3.

Judge Carter to-day discharged Samuel Strong, on the ground that the evidence furnished did not clearly and sufficiently show that Strong was a fugitive from justice, in the sense of the Constitution of the United States. [Strong, it will be remembered, was first arrested on a requisition from Governor Pierpont, of Virginia, on a charge of embezzlement, and discharged on the ground that Virginia was not a State. He was subsequently rearrested on the same charge, on a requisition from General Schofield as commander of that district.—REP.]

Fortieth Congress---First Session

SENATE.

WASHINGTON, April 3.

The galleries were tolerably filled to-day for the first time, with a fair sprinkling of negroes among the spectators. Mr. Drake moved that the Senate take up the proposition he offered yesterday, to amend the Rules, and asked a vote upon it. The motion was made and agreed to, striking out that part relating to the yeas and nays, and the vote being taken, the motion was adopted. Charles A. Fuller, who identified the telegraphic correspondence, between the President and Governor Parsons, yesterday, was recalled and Butler, before interrogating him, said, "I will read a single paper, and that paper is a message from the President of the United States communicating to the Senate the report of the Secretary of State showing the proceedings under the concurrent resolutions of the two Houses of Congress, of the 18th of June, in submitting to the Legislatures of the several States an additional article to the Constitution of the United States.

Senator Thayer—What article?

Mr. Butler—The 14th article. It is dated June 26th, 1866, and it is the same one to which the dispatch referred to. It is an executive document of the first session of that Congress, and is produced in order to show to what the dispatch referred.

The message was then handed to the President's counsel for inspection, after which it was read by the Secretary. The examination of the witness was then proceeded with. He identified the original copy of the speech of President Johnson, made on the 18th of August, 1866, and telegraphed from Washington to the associated press.

James B. Sheridan, stenographer, testified that he reported the speech of the President, made in the east room of the White House, on the 18th of August, 1866, which he took down to the best of his ability, in short hand, and wrote out, giving a copy to Colonel Moore, the President's Private Secretary. He did not recognize the copy shown him by Mr. Butler as his own, but swore to having written out from his notes, and afterwards by extracts, from extracts of the speech, which were then shown him in manuscript. Cross examined by Evarts. The stenographic report in his own notes, was wholly written by himself. The speech occupied about twenty-five minutes in delivery. It was reported from sound, but also that the report written out recently was from the signs, could not write them out correctly after a long lapse of time.

James A. Clipham, Deputy Clerk of the Supreme Court, of the District of Columbia, testified that on the 19th of September, 1866, he was employed in the State Department. Had been a stenographer for about eight years, was then engaged to report the President's speech, and that he transcribed from his notes, a portion of the speech for the Associated Press; did not recognize the manuscript shown him as being his own handwriting; he might have dictated it; at his request Mr. McPherson and wrote out a literal report of the speech, which the Chronicle published next morning, that paper being unwilling to take the copy furnished by Colonel Moore. The report of the Chronicle was as accurate, with the exception; perhaps, of a few words.

Cross-Examined by Evarts.—Took phonographic notes of the entire speech; wrote them all out, but do not know where the manuscript now is; when he read the published speech he did not have his notes before him; had never compared them; had never written out the manuscript of them with the printed, to compare them, said the copy of the Chronicle before him contained the speech referred to. Mr. Butler asked if it was a correct report. Mr. Evarts objected, saying it was impossible to tell from memory. Mr. Butler claimed that having twice seen it, and that his testimony would very well remember Evarts argued in reply, maintaining that the original notes must be produced, and also said that the President had not been allowed the usual opportunity of correcting his speech, which all Congressmen are.

Mr. Tinker being recalled produced a copy of the President's speech, marked as having been sent over the wires by the associated Press.

Mr. Sheridan said he recognized a portion of it as his own handwriting. There were corrections in this copy, but he did not see them made, but believed they were made at the White House.

Cross-examined—Had corrected the papers which are in his own handwriting, only those pages were written from his own notes. This was done at times by himself, but he had never since compared them. The copy before him was substantially a correct transcript of his notes.

Mr. Frances Smith, official reporter of the House of Representatives, testified: Have been a stenographer for fourteen yers; was one of those employed by the agent of the Associated Press to report the speech referred to. He produced his notes, and said he wrote out a portion of the speech, and delivered the sheets one by one to Colonel Moore.

Question—"Who corrected them?"

Answer—"Colonel Moore," who had stated that he wished to revise them, not to make any substantial changes, but to revise the phraseology. The witness selected from the copy sent by telegraph the portions written out by himself.

Cross-examined by Mr. Evarts—The manuscript was correctly made, substantially, but he had to correct the ungrammatical expressions.

Mr. Clephane was then recalled, and said that he recognized the manuscript of his report.

Cross examined—In his variations from strict accuracy he had made the meaning clear, and corrected grammatical errors.

Colonel W. G. Moore, the President's Private Secretary, testified—Was appointed paymaster with the rank of Major in November, 1865, and in 1865, was made Private Secretary to the President. Before that time had been Assistant Adjutant General. Had heard the speech of August 18th made, and had made some corrections in the reports made by the stenographers, doing so with the assistance of memoranda. Did not change the substance in any case, but altered the language. In examining the manuscript he finds no page on which his writing predominates. He made no change without the authority or direction of the President, and the manuscript as revised was handed to the agent of the Associated Press. The President had since said to witness that he had done wrong in making those corrections.

Mr. Butler then proposed to read all the various reports of the speech, and put them in evidence. Mr. Evarts objected, and said that the report in the Chronicle is not proved by authentic evidence. At this point (2:25 p.m.) the court took a recess for fifteen minutes, and on re-assembling a motion was made to adjourn the Court from this evening until Monday next, which was lost by 19 to 28. Mr. Butler then read the Associated Press agent's report of the speech, and at its conclusion Mr. Anthony made a motion that the reporter of the associated press be admitted to the floor, but the Chief Justice decided that it was not in order.

William H. Hudson, of the Cleveland Leader, testified: With the assistance of Mr. Johnson I reported the speech made by the President at Cleveland in September 1866; have my original notes only; a part was reported verbatim; words which he did not use were employed in the synoptical portions.

Cross-Examined.—The papers for which I reported it were opposed to the President; I wrote my notes upon my knee; I omitted portions of the speech, but gave the draft; I have not compared a full report with my notes; my notes were not phonographical, but written in long hand; my synopsis of portion, as taken down, was again reduced for publication; in making my report I also made use of Johnson's report, which was taken in the same way. There were many interruptions and pauses.

Mr. Butler—Then the crowd and the President were bandying epithets?

Objection to, and the question was withdrawn.

Mr. Butler then asked what the crowd said, and told the witness that he might refresh his memory by the memorandum before him.

Mr. Evarts objected, saying that newspapers were not memorandums.

The objection was then argued by Messrs. Butler and Evarts.

The Chief Justice ruled that the witness might refer to a newspaper if he knew it to be correct.

The witness proceeded, and read extracts narrating the interruptions which enabled him to write out portions of what the President said verbatim.

Being cross examined, said he took down what the crowd said, and at the same time caught up with my report of what the President said. The account of the interruptions which have just been given were all read by me from the paper before me.

D. C. McEwen, a short-hand reporter, testified: I accompanied the President's party as reporter for the World. The witness produced a stenograph report of the Cleveland speech, and also a copy of an accurate transcript of the report, written out and handed to the agent of the Associated Press, (Mr. Gobright.) Witness put down a portion of the interruptions. It was impossible to get all, as there was a great deal of noise and confusion. I think there were expressions of ill feeling or temper on the part of the crowd. The President was a little excited. The crowd said, "Don't get mad, Andy." After hearing additional testimony on the President's Cleveland speech, the Senate adjourned.

CIRCUIT COURT MATTERS IN FAYETTE.—The trial of Mr. A. C. Kirwan for the murder of Stewart, commenced last week, was concluded on the 28th ultimo, by the jury rendering a verdict of not guilty. The case of Morris Wesley, charged with killing Arthur Reeves, was next taken up Monday. "Not guilty" was the verdict. At the time of the unfortunate affair both parties were boys, neither being more than fourteen years old, in consequence of which no little interest was manifested in the result. The trial of James Bryson, charged with murderous assault, was taken up Thursday. It is understood that the court would adjourn to-day.

ARREST OF A ST. LOUIS WOMAN MURDERER.—Yesterday morning a man known as "Billy" Hobbs, was arrested by detective Morrison on some charge of which there seemed to be no proof. Detective McCune, of the Metropolitan Police, identified Hobbs as the man who murdered a woman in St. Louis, a year ago. The prisoner was accordingly transferred to him. Hobbs will be held for a requisition from the Governor of Missouri.

NEWS IN BRIEF.

Yesterday was as lovely as one of our prettiest belles taking her morning promenade on Main street—bright, beautiful, sunbeamy and gentle.

T. Dempsy was arrested last night for horse stealing, and Lewis Jones (colored) for mule stealing.

Yesterday detectives recovered some plated ware valued at $25, which had been stolen from the residence of Mr. Packer.

Chandler's soda fountain has been opened for the season. A supply of mineral water is kept on hand.

R. Greenwood's near the corner of Main and Beal streets, was robbed of $200 worth of pistols and jewelry Thursday night.

Two black mackerels were arrested while stealing shoes at J. H. Loewenstine & Co.'s, about nine o'clock last night.

Business was dull in the police court yesterday morning, only six cases having been disposed of, and eleven dollars collected.

On dit—that a grand masquerade and fancy dress ball will be given at the Chickasaw Club Hall on the 15th. The fashionables are already preparing for the forthcoming event.

Little Beecher and Grandmother Hunter were in Humboldt on Thursday. It is understood that a squad of Metropolitan detectives were seen in that vicinity the same day.

Henry Lewis (colored, supposed to be a relative of the Chairman of the County Commissioners) stole a kettle from Henry Allison, broke it, and endeavored to sell the pieces to a junkshopper. He was arrested.

The Confederate members of the Fayette county Reeves family is after our LaGrange correspondent "O. K. K." with a sharp stick, through the Somerville Falcon. We presume "O. K. K." will be heard from on the subject.

Dan Owens, charged with stealing a cow from Mr. Downs, on the Raleigh Road, was yesterday committed to jail by Esquire Millard, in default of $1,000 bail, for appearance at the Criminal Court.

Cotton closed firm yesterday evening, with none on the market. Holders were asking 29@30c for middlings. Sales were made at 27½@28c during the day, being an advance of 2c, and within a half cent of the New York market. Great activity is anticipated to-day.

We were pleased to meet yesterday our young friend, Mr. R. C. Maynard, a youthful confederate soldier, and now a highly esteemed citizen of Aberdeen, Mississippi. Our business men would do well to secure the services of this gentleman in his line of business.

Our young friend Samuel P. Walker, junior, (Buster) son of the late Colonel J Knox Walker, will leave this morning for New York, en route to California, where he designs residing in future. "Buster" has hosts of friends here and will carry with him their best wishes for success in his new home.

A white thief entered J. H. Loewenstine & Co's. store in the Clay building, about seven o'clock yesterday evening, seized four or five hats and ran into the alley. Mr. D. C. Loewenstine closeley followed and fired at the scamp, but without effect. Turning suddenly into centre alley at the rear of the building the light fingered gent escaped.

At the last regular meeting of Chelsea Division No. 57, Sons of Temperance, the following officers were elected for the ensuing quarter: R P Grant, W P; R T White, W A; John White, Chaplain; J A Giles, R S; M Ford, A R S; A H Dougherty, F S; Geo M Grant, Treasurer; W T Bailey, junior, Conductor; Joe Worsham, Assistant Conductor; George Egnew, junior, I S; Dr W T Bailey, O S; T McClenny, P W P.

We learn that a few days since, in answer to a telegram, Colonel F. A Terry, Chairman of the Democratic Executive Committee at Little Rock, received a dispatch from General Gillem, to the effect that if it could be shown that fraud was used on either side in the recent election, a new election should be ordered. That the Radicals perpetrated frauds by the wholesale there can be no doubt.

The Varieties continues to attract large audiences nightly—a natural result of the prominence in the company of such popular cards as Misses DeVere, Kent, Wallace, Howland, Wheeler, Whitney and Conwell; and Messrs. Benton, Hart, Howard, Willis, Manning, etc. The singing, burlesques, plantation delineations and other performances are received with hearty applause.

We learn that a temperance division composed of youths between eight and eighteen years of age will be organized this afternoon. It is proposed to place the youngsters on the temperance track before the period of temptation arrives. The organization will be effected at three o'clock, at the lodge room, on the corner of Main and Court streets. It will be known as the "Junior Sons of Temperance."

A couple of weeks since, a paragraph appeared in the AVALANCHE, devoted to one McNair, a "truly loil" representative from Gibson county, who sued his father for services as nurse to a younger brother. The Nashville Banner editorially appropriated the item, and a day or two since it was reproduced in a city cotemporary, credited to our Capitolian neighbor. Having "writ" it ourselves, of course the article was a good thing, but our cotemporary could have saved time by copying it directly from the AVALANCHE.

As has been already announced, our Southern citizens will visit Elmwood on the 25th, (the 26th being Sunday,) strew flowers on the Confederate dead reposing within its sacred precincts, and listen to orations commemorating their heroism and patriotism. In connection with this event it is not improper to mention that during the day trains will be run from the Memphis and Charleston depot to the point on the line nearest the cemetery. This will be done at the request of citizens interested in the exercises, and be regarded as a portion of the general arrangements.

ATTEMPTED FORGERY.

A contemplated forgery was neatly nipped in the bud yesterday afternoon, and its author placed behind the bars. It seems that a man named F. Triplett, formerly connected with the Watkins' Infirmary, became quite familiar with the signature of Mr. Hill, a well known Front street cotton broker, in consequence of being often in his office, and seeing cancelled checks returned from the banks.

The result of this was the drawing of a check in Mr. Hill's name on the First National Bank for $1,400. This was given to a man named Smith, who was to get it cashed, when both would leave on the evening train. But Smith went directly to Mr. Hill with the check and informed him of the affair. Colonel Beaumont was immediately notified, and in a short time Triplett was lodged in the First District station house.

FIRE LAST NIGHT.

An Untenanted Dwelling Burned on Adams Street—Loss $6,000—The Insurance.

About half past eleven o'clock last night a large frame building, known to old citizens as the "Hyer place," from having been the residence of the Rev. Dr. Hyer, many years ago, was fired in the second story and almost entirely destroyed. It belonged to Mr. Charles W. Johnston, who occupied it until a couple of months ago. Since that time it has been untenanted, and this is the third effort at incendiarism made within the period mentioned.

The building was worth about $6,000, and insured with Tomlinson's agency in the Home, of New York. After the second effort at arson Mr. Johnson was notified that unless the building was occupied by April 1st, the policy would be cancelled; but we could not ascertain whether the cancellation was effected.

Proceedings of the Board of County Commissioners Yesterday.

The following was adopted, Mr. Merriman voting in the negative: Wickersham's bonds were accepted, and he was inducted into office.

Be it ordered, That the Sheriff of Shelby county put E. W. Wickersham, County Trustee, into immediate possession of the rooms assigned by the Court for the use of the Trustee, together with the furniture, books and papers belonging to said office, which are in said rooms.

Mr. Thomas E. Leonard, contestant, applied for and obtained an appeal to the Supreme Court. His bond was fixed at $6,000. Mr. White voted against the appeal being granted. Mr. Hack failed to vote.

G. A. Peurstacke, was appointed overseer of the State Line road to the north side of Phillips' avenue, with full power to remove fences or any other obstructions found in said avenue.

An appeal was granted in the case of C. W. Johnston vs. Geo. W. Greeley, contested election; also on that of Phil. Garvin vs. W. McLean, contest for the County Tax Collectorship, the bond being fixed at $2,000. An appeal was also granted in the case of Norton vs. Hayden, the bond being $1,000.

The bondsmen of E. W. Wickersham, County Trustee, are Messrs. Joseph Flannery, W. N. Eakin, John Donovan, J. H. Choate, Joseph J. Powers, John C. Powers and John Cooney.

AN EX-DEPUTY MARSHAL COMES TO GRIEF.—The proprietor of the Southern Hotel yesterday issued a warrant for the arrest of one W. H. Hobbs, accused of sheet and pillow-case lifting. Hobbs was once a gay Deputy Marshal of the Municipal Court, but suddenly disappeared from its precincts in consequence of some unpleasant and soul-harrowing suspicions relative to the disposition of sundry sums of money collected by him in official capacity. He next essayed the perils of a night watchman, but was discharged for incapacity. When nigger Rankin became invested with the judicial vermin of the magistracy Hobbs was inducted into office as special constable and general roustabout, a position understood to be suited to his distinguished abilities. The natural result of this latest association was the abduction of a few sheets and pillow-cases from the Southern Hotel, and their transfer to an African temple of Aphrodite on Jefferson street. Unmindful of Hobbs' former luster as a Municipal Court cockelorum; regardless of his splendor as an independent "minion of the moon;" and despite his magnificence as boot-cleaner and bottle-carrier to his royal Hindoo highness; an officer, armed with a ruthless search-warrant, discovered the missing linen, and pounced down on him like a hawk on a June bug. There is weeping and wailing and gnashing of teeth in the house of Hobbs; there is desolation around the Hobbs hearthstone; the sunlight of Hobbs has blinked into gloom; and Ichabod is written across his massive forehead.

AN EXPLANATORY CARD.—The following, from one of our most worthy young lawyers, is an explanation due him under the circumstances:

MEMPHIS, April 3d, 1868.

EDITORS AVALANCHE: Since the termination of the late discussion before the Judge of the Municipal Court, of the questions raised by the habeas corpus sued out by you for relief against the sentence of Judge Hunter, imprisoning you for alleged contempts in publishing strictures on his judicial conduct, I have been unpleasantly made aware of the fact that many persons suppose that I am the Mr. Griffin who appeared in those trials, in support of Judge Hunter's actions. This, as you are aware, is not true, and, without at all meaning in this public manner to become a partizan in any controversy between you and Judge Hunter, I nevertheless deem it due to myself to say, that, however humble my professional capacity may be, it can at no time be used by any one, with or without fee, adversely to the freedom of the press, or to curtail the public liberties and privileges of the citizen to the slightest extent. I therefore respectfully ask that you give me in your journal the benefit of this correction.

Yours, GERALD L. GRIFFIN.

JAIL DELIVERY IN SOMERVILLE.—Jail deliveries in Somerville have become quite frequent during the past few months. The latest occurred a few nights ago, eight prisoners succeeding in escaping. One was Sam Hill, under sentence of ten years in the penitentiary for murdering a man named Sutherland, and another, Charles Loftis, under five years' sentence. The Falcon says the escape was effected by means of some files and knives furnished by some one to Hill. The files were used in converting the knives into saws, with which they succeeded in sawing out and removing the plank in the inner part of the jail, and then proceeded to pick a hole through the brick wall, and about two o'clock at night bid adieu to prison bars. One of the prisoners, a negro named Bradley Tweedy, charged with stealing or having in possession stolen beef, did not avail himself of the opportunity afforded him of making his escape, but remained in prison.

U. S. CLAIM AGENCY AND GENERAL COLLECTING OFFICE—Moyers and Dedrick, Attorneys and Agents, Memphis, Tenn. April 3, 1868.—All citizens of Shelby county whose claims against the United States are in our hands for collection, and those who originally intrusted their claims to Messrs. Mitchell & McCrillis, are requested to call at our office at their earliest convenience. We desire to present the above claims to the Commission now sitting in this city, under State authority, and an early adjustment of deserving claims may be confidently hoped for. Claimants will be required in the first instance to take the franchise oath, and present two credible witnesses to loyalty, after which their claims will be taken up for examination, and on proper proof will be taken up by the said Board. All claims must be filed before June 1. We would also respectfully notify our claimants in other counties, that we will be in attendance upon their respective Commissions to assist in re-presenting their claims as originally filed, with a view to obtaining the favorable consideration of the above Board.

BANKRUPTCY COURT—J. T. Latham, Register.—The following petitions have been found incorrect in form by the Register. Attorneys interested in said petitions are notified to correct the same, as soon as possible:

W C Thompson, Samuel D & Richard B Barnett, James A Hudson, William O Butler, J B Scudder, Jesse W Page, C Michie, S M Gardiner, Marcus Scallar, George W Payne, W W Coleman, C W Moreland, Wm A Rawlings, George G Petelo, Frank A Saunders, James Flanerty, Nevills & Rose.

A meeting of creditors was had in the case of M. B. Thomas, John C. Weaver, Charles S. Brown, R. R. Roberts, and W. Y. Cirode appointed assignee.

UNITED STATES COURT.—C. F. Trigg, Judge. The cases of Newmark vs. the Ætna Insurance Company, was heard before a Jury, on argument yesterday. The argument will be resumed to-day. Newmark sues the defendants upon a policy of insurance, for the value of damages sustained by him, by having his stock of dry goods injured by fire, some time last winter. His warehouse was situated on Main street, near the northwest corner of Main and Union streets. The defendants resist on the grounds of non-compliance with the provisions of the policy of insurance by the plaintiff. Messrs. Ayers and Randolph represent the plaintiff, and General Humes and Mr. Richards the defendants.

LAW COURT—James O. Pierce, Judge, etc.—The case of damages of Wilson vs. the Mississippi and Tennessee Railroad Company, was heard on argument before a jury on yesterday.

To-day being motion day, the Clerk will call the cases entered on the motion docket, as usual.

After hearing all motions, the contested election case of Donovan vs. Matthias will be commenced. The whole question as to the legality of the late county election will be under consideration, Judge Pierce being of opinion that the Law Court has jurisdiction of the subject matter.

Mrs. Winslow's Soothing Syrup, for children teething, greatly facilitates the process of teething, by softening the gums, reducing all inflammation; will allay all pain and spasmodic action, and is sure to regulate the bowels. Depend upon it, mothers, it will give rest to yourselves, and relief and health to your infants. We have put up and sold this article for years, and can say in confidence and truth of it what we have never been able to say of any other medicine—never has it failed in a single instance to affect a cure, when timely used. Never did we know an instance of dissatisfaction by any one who used it. On the contrary, all are delighted with its operation, and speak in terms of commendation of its medical effects and medical virtues. We speak in this matter "what we know," after years of experience, and pledge our reputation for the fulfillment of what we here declare. In almost every instance where the infant is suffering from pain and exhaustion, relief will be found in fifteen or twenty minutes after the syrup is administered. Full directions for using will accompany each bottle. Be sure and call for "Mrs. Winslow's Soothing Syrup," having the fac-simile of "Curtis & Perkins" on the outside wrapper. All others are base imitations. Sold by all druggists throughout the world. Price only thirty-five cents per bottle. City of Cairo	ST. LOUIS	5 p.m

BUSINESS—WEATHER—RIVERS.

Weather clear and pleasant. The river here is falling slowly and has fallen three inches in the past twenty-four hours. At St. Louis and Cairo the river is receding. The Ohio is falling from Pittsburg to Louisville, with nineteen feet on the falls. The Cumberland is rising slowly, with five feet on Harpeth shoals. White river is receding steadily. The Arkansas was rising slowly at Little Rock on Wednesday, with five feet in the channel.

ARRIVALS.

Steamer Richmond, New Orleans.
" Louisville, New Orleans.
" Pauline Carroll, St. Louis.
" City of Cairo, St. Louis.
" Tempest, White river.

DEPARTURES.

Steamer Richmond, Louisville.
" Louisville, Louisville.
" Pauline Carroll, New Orleans.
" Belle St. Louis, St. Louis.
" Mayflower, Evansville.
" Natoma, Friar's Point.
" Celeste, Arkansas river.
" Sam. J. Hale, Cincinnati.
" Tempest, Louisville.

BOATS IN PORT.

Liberty No. 2 and City of Cairo.

MISCELLANEOUS.

The levee presented a dull appearance yesterday with a small list of boats in port. The departures include the Mayflower, for Evansville; Celeste, for Arkansas river; Belle St. Louis, for St. Louis; Natoma, for Friar's Point; and Sam J. Hale, for Cincinnati. The Hale had 700 bales cotton and 200 tons old iron.

The river here is steadily receding. At Cairo and St. Louis the river is on the decline. The Ohio at Cincinnati, on Thursday was falling, and all fear of a freshet are at an end.

The fine steamer, Liberty No. 2, arrived in port Thursday night as sound as a dollar. The dispatch that was received saying that she had broke her guards, was in relation to the Brooks. The Liberty is the regular Saturday White river mail packet, and leaves to-day at 5 p.m., going through to Jacksonport, making close connection with the steamer Fairy Queen, for Batesville, and at Duvall's Bluff with the Little Rock Railroad, for all points on the Arkansas. The Liberty has unsurpassed passenger accomodations, and is in charge of reliable officers. Captain George N. Cable commands, with Milt. Harry, a genial and clever gentleman, in charge of the office, assisted by Mr. Charley Sharpe, an attentive clerk.

The Richmond passed up Thursday night with a fair trip.

The Pauline Carroll passed down yesterday well freighted.

The City of Cairo arrived from St. Louis last evening. She returns to St. Louis to-day at five p.m.

Captain John Davis, Superintendent of the White river packet line, returned home yesterday from St. Louis. The St. Louis papers in speaking of him pays a high tribute to his enterprise and integrity.

Cotton for New Orleans has been offering quite freely for the past week, and shippers have been unable to get transportation for it. There is now on the wharf 2,200 bales, which will be shipped on the Great Republic. If the merchants of Memphis would consult their own interests, by sustaining packets that would make this port their terminus, we could have a regular line of packets in the New Orleans trade, which would bring not only trade to the city, but put into circulation a large amount of money with us. They purchase their stores in St. Louis, and seldom ever make their purchases here; so the city receives very little benefit through them. Remove the wharfboats from the landing, and packets will spring up which will increase the trade of the city, and make business in the various branches of trade.

The magnificent steamer Great Republic, Capt. Donaldson, will be at the wharf this morning to receive for New Orleans, and leave to-day at five p.m. Captain Sam. Barr, junior, has charge of the office. The Republic gets here for New Orleans 2,100 bales of cotton.

The Cincinnati and New Orleans line has fallen to pieces. Two boats sunk, and two withdrawn from the line, left only four remaining, and this was not a sufficient number to keep one at the wharf all the time.

Daily accessions to the black brigade on the wharf continue. We saw several persons on the levee yesterday trying to engage laborers to go into the country, and in only one case were they successful.

The Liberty No. 2 connects at Jacksonport with the Fairy Queen for Batesville.

The John Kilgour and Westmoreland are due from the Ohio.

The Alaska and Bismarck are due from New Orleans.

The superb steamer Julia, Captain James Luker, will leave the wharf to day at five p.m. for Vicksburg and the Bends. Captain Lee Fleming, an old packet trade clerk, has charge of the office.

The Tempest passed up last night for Louisville.

The sternwheel steamer Helena was sold at St. Louis on Thursday at public auction to Mr. Robert S. McDonald for $8,000.

Mr. E. Byington, the famous railroad passenger agent, has opened a new office in St. Louis. By. is agent for all the packet lines and railroads in the United States and Alaska.

The Tempest will leave the wharf to-day at twelve m. for Louisville.

The Mary Erwin is due on Sunday from Cincinnati, en route for the Arkansas.

The Little Rock Gazette of the 1st says:

Letters from Fort Smith and Van Buren, dated the 28th ultimo, state that the river had risen there as much as eighteen inches, and the Ozark would be off "this evening." The Florence Traber arrived late Monday evening from Memphis, and left for above yesterday morning. The Peerless left for New Orleans yesterday with a full load of cotton. The Hesper struck a snag on Logan's bar, and sunk. She is reported a total loss. She had on board about 300 bales of cotton, also some hides and corn.

The Cincinnati Enquirer of the 2d says:

The river was going down very rapidly yesterday. In the twenty-four hours up to last evening, it had fallen three and a half feet, with forty-three and a half feet in the channel, and fifty-eight and a half feet under the bridge for passing steamers. Both rivers continue to fall at Pittsburg. Business on the wharf was moderately active. Packets arriving from above brought in fine trips. Shipments for points South were not notably heavy. There will be three boats receiving for New Orleans to-day, one of which will leave this evening.

Major De Vassa, General Agent for the Little Miami Railroad at Memphis, was a passenger out on the Clifton last evening.

The Clifton departed for Memphis with a fair freight and a good passenger trip. The Silver Moon is the next regular packet, to leave Friday.

Captain R. S. Yerkes has secured the Emperor for the Arkansas river trade, and will have her at the wharf to-day receiving for all points on that stream.

We learn that Lieutenant John Arthur, formerly the river reporter of the Gazette, has resigned his commission in the Second Cavalry, and returns to his home in Newport.

MONETARY.

DAILY AVALANCHE OFFICE,
SATURDAY, April 4, 1868.

The money market yesterday was quiet and devoid of interest, with little doing in the discount market. The rates of interest are firm and unchanged. Exchange is steady, buying at ⅜@½c. off, and selling at ¼c. premium.

GOLD—In New York opened at 137⅝, advanced to 138, and closed at 137⅞. The market here was quiet, with few transactions. Dealers were offering 137½ and selling over the counter at 139@139½.

SILVER—Steady, buying at 128@129c., and selling at 130@131c.

CITY SCRIP—The market yesterday was inactive with little offering. Brokers were offering 64@65c. and holding firm at 66@67c. About $3,000 changed hands at 65c.

COUNTY WARRANTS—Are dull and heavy, with few transactions, buying at 52@53c. and selling at 55@56c.

POLICE SCRIP—Is weak and nominal, buying at 80@82c., and selling at 85@86c.

COMMERCIAL.

DAILY AVALANCHE OFFICE,
SATURDAY, April 4, 1868.

The weather being pleasant yesterday the streets were thronged with pedestrians, and the main thoroughfare presented a very busy appearance, though there was little doing in the general market. The White river packet brought in a large list of orders for plantation supplies, which will be filled to-day. The river is falling, and all fears of an overflow is at an end; and the planters living along the bends have to set to work in good earnest to plant their crops. This will tend to improve the trade between here and Vicksburg. Notwithstanding the hard times, the planters are exerting themselves, and seem determined to make an effort to raise another crop. Our merchants should render all the assistance they can. If the crops turn out well we will have good times next fall. Provisions and breadstuffs remain firm and steady, with prices unchanged. The grocery market is firm and steady, the stocks on hand are equal to the requirements.

The New Orleans Price Current states that the estimated damage to the sugar cane by freezing, during the winter, amounts to about one-third of the crop. Still, there will be double of the breadth of land planted this season that there was last year. From all sections of the country we have cheering accounts of the growing wheat. Never were the prospects better at this season of the year, or more generally favorable throughout the country. The winter wheat is well set in the ground, and is now beyond the reach of frost, and although disasters may occur in some localities before harvest, there is no doubt that the yield will be large, even allowing one-third of the crop to be distroyed. Spring wheat has already been sown as far North as Wisconsin and Minnesota. In the South, planting has been retarded by long continued rains, but the latest accounts state that the weather is fine, and planting is progressing actively. Old Virginia is waking up to the progress of the age, in agriculture, as is evident from the following in the Richmond Enquirer, of March 26:

To the surprise of many, the wheat crop does not appear to have been materially injured by the severity of the winter, and an unusually large amount of plowing has been done for the corn and oat crops. Recognizing also the pressing necessity for a radical change in their system of agriculture, the farmers of Virginia are in many localities which are accessible to the large cities of the Atlantic States, departing from the old routine of crops, and giving their attention to the various fruits and vegetables which make the agriculture of the North so very profitable.

Our farmers are everywhere inaugurating a new and prosperous era in the agriculture of the State by giving not only very close personal attention to their laborers, but they are making the noblest and best form of labor attractive and honorable, by cultivating the soil with their own hands. The number of unhappy men who conduct the great business of farming by sitting upon a fence and "whittling" a rail, or by reading a newspaper while perched upon a stump overlooking a negro who is scratching the soil with a dilapidated one-horse plow, is now very small, and becoming beautifully less. But thousands of intelligent and industrious men are now "taking hold" of the work of the farm in a way which can not fail to make it handsomely remunerative. They are pursuing a career which will restore the prosperity of their State, and give fresh vitality to our cities and towns.

MEMPHIS & ARKANSAS RIVER

UNITED STATES MAIL

PACKET LINE

For Napoleon, Pine Bluff, Little Rock, Van Buren, Fort Smith and Fort Gibson.

CELESTE.......................Pritchard, master
CENTRALIA.......................Nowland, master
OZARK.......................Hambleton, master
GLEANER.......................Blaisdell, master

One of the above named boats will leave Memphis EACH MONDAY AND THURSDAY during the season for Little Rock, and there make close connections with the following boats, (belonging to the Company):

For Dardanelle, Van Buren, Fort Smith and Fort Gibson, viz:

VAN BUREN.......................Smith, master
AMERICAN.......................Nowland, master
FORT SMITH.......................Rowland, master

The latter boats were built expressly for the trade, and are now running to Dardanelle; and as soon as the water will permit, will extend their trips to Fort Smith and Fort Gibson.

Shippers and the traveling public may rely upon the above schedule; and should any ease of business require it, an other boat will be added, making three boats from Memphis each week. Feeling assured that increased facilities will bring an increase of business, the proprietors of this line are determined to do their part.

THE FINLEY
CHURN DASHER!

THE SIMPLEST. THE CHEAPEST. THE BEST.

THREE DOLLARS. SOLD EVERYWHERE AT ONE PRICE GUARANTEED.

5,000 AGENTS MORE WANTED!

AGENCIES granted by Counties or States.
Call and see us or write for particulars, (with stamp.)
DASHER sent to any address on receipt of price.
Price everywhere invariably Three Dollars Cash.

The old Dasher BREAKS or SLASHES the cream to pieces.
The FINLEY DASHER CUTS the cream to pieces.
The old Dasher makes but TWO agitations of the cream at each up and down motion.
The FINLEY DASHER makes from TEN to FIFTEEN agitations at each up and down motion.
The old Dasher CANNOT supply the requisite amount of air.
The FINLEY DASHER DOES introduce large and constant supplies of fresh air.
The old Dasher leaves from ONE-FOURTH to ONE-THIRD of the butter in the cream, because it CANNOT remove it.
The FINLEY DASHER takes ALL the butter out of the cream, and therefore ONE-FOURTH to ONE-THIRD more than the old Dasher.
The old Dasher requires the hard work of a HALF to ONE HOUR. The FINLEY DASHER WILL DO THE SAME WORK in from FIVE to FIFTEEN minutes.
The old Dasher consumes TWENTY to TWENTY-SIX HOURS EACH MONTH in churning. The FINLEY DASHER does the same work in LESS THAN FIVE HOURS and with GAIN in QUANTITY of butter sufficient to buy TWO FINLEY DASHERS at three dollars each.
The FINLEY DASHER can be SO EASILY CLEANED—made "bright as a spoon," and WILL RETAIN ITS SWEETNESS so essential to good milk and butter.
The FINLEY DASHER gives to the butter a decidedly firm, "waxy," "grainy" appearance—better for table, with more in the market.
The FINLEY DASHER, in the latter respect, has the advantage over all Crank or Rotary Churns—THEY TAKE THE GRAIN OUT OF THE BUTTER AND LEAVE IT LAT.
The FINLEY DASHER will last a life time if not abused.
The FINLEY DASHER is adapted to "old fashioned churns."
ANY ONE can use the FINLEY DASHER—so simple.
The FINLEY DASHER is being used over the greater portion of Middle and West Tennessee, North and Central Mississippi, Kentucky, Arkansas, Texas, Alabama, Missouri, Kansas, Iowa, Illinois, Ohio and Western New York, with the very greatest satisfaction.

Trustee's Sale.

BY virtue of a deed executed to me on the 28th day of January, 1867, by E. S. Plummer, and recorded in the Register's office of Shelby county, Tennessee, in book 59, part 2, pages 225, 226, 227, conveying the interest of said Plummer in a certain leasehold for the purpose of securing a debt due to the Franklin Insurance Company, I shall,

On Friday, April 10, 1868,

Between the hours of eleven and twelve o'clock, proceed to sell upon the premises all the interest and title of the said Plummer in a certain lot in the city of Memphis, on the north side of Washington street, which said lot is described as follows in a certain deed from Basilius Lorenz to E. S. Plummer, of record in the Register's office, in book 49, pages 562, 563, viz.: Beginning at a stake on the north side of Washington street thirty-one (31) feet and six (6) inches west of John Park's 63 feet lot, running thence one hundred and fifty (150) feet, more or less, to the alley between Washington street and Poplar; thence eastwardly with the south side of said alley thirty-one (31) feet and six inches to John Park's line; thence southwardly with John Park's line one hundred and fifty (150) feet, more or less, to Washington street; thence westwardly thirty-one feet and six inches to the beginning. The lease of the said Plummer was for a term of fifty years from the 5th of June, 1858, and has upwards of thirty-four years still to run. The property is valuable as an investment, having uniformly yielded a remunerative rental.

Trustee's Sale.

BY virtue of the power in me vested in a deed of trust executed on the 14th day of May, 1867, by Andrew J. Dowd, of Coahoma county, Miss., to me, as trustee, to secure to Messrs. Galbreath, Stewart & Co., of Memphis, Tennessee, the payment of certain debts and liabilities of the said Dowd therein mentioned, I will proceed to sell to the highest bidder, for cash,

On Monday, the 13th day of April 1868,

On the premises, the following real and personal property, to-wit: The said Dowd's plantation in Coahoma county, Miss., situated on Moon Lake, whereon the said Dowd now resides, and containing thirteen (1300) hundred acres, more or less, the same being all the lands owned by the said Dowd in the said county, with all tenements, hereditaments and appurtenances. I will at the same time, and on the same terms, offer for sale about forty (40) mules, together with a lot of cows, calves and dry cattle, about fifty (50) head; also, all the farming utensils, wagons, gear, etc., all the property of the said Dowd; also, a large lot of corn on the place. The title to the said real and personal property is believed to be good, but I simply sell and convey as trustee aforesaid.
